Learning Supervisor
Zero-hours
Autumn Term 2025
Hourly rate: £14.00/hour

The Henrietta Barnett School is looking to appoint a Learning Supervisor from 1st September 2025, to work as and when the school has need and the Learning Supervisor has availability, across the Autumn Term 2025 in the first instance.

The Learning Supervisor is to supervise and assist classes and independent study groups and areas across the curriculum in following a programme of study during the short-term absence of teachers or other staff. No minimum hours can be guaranteed.

The Henrietta Barnett School is a highly academic girls' grammar school of approximately 800 students. It is a warm, friendly school in beautiful surroundings, with a culturally diverse intake and a keen interest in developing girls' education.

The Henrietta Barnett School is one of UK's leading schools. Regularly topping national league tables, for 2023 and 2025 it was named as the top secondary state school in the Sunday Times 'Parent Power' table for academic achievement.

We are committed to the safeguarding of children and the successful applicant will be subject to an enhanced disclosure and disbaring service check and other checks.

For further information please submit an application to recruitment@hbschool.org.uk, which should include a covering letter and completed application form. An electronic copy of the application form, on which all applications must be submitted, can be found on the school's website.

Deadline for applications: Tuesday, 26th August 2025 (09:00am)

The school reserves the right to interview and appoint this position ahead of any advised application closing date should an appropriate candidate be found.

The Henrietta Barnett School values the diversity of our staff and students and all of our staff are equally valued and respected.

[please note that applications will be considered as they are received]
