Your Legacy to The Henrietta Barnett School Trust

Your Legacy

As an alumna of The Henrietta Barnett School you are part of a remarkable lineage of women who have shaped the world. The education, friendships, and confidence you gained here were made possible not only by your hard work but by the foresight of those who invested in the school's future before you arrived.

By leaving a gift in your Will, you ensure that the same transformative opportunities remain open to the bright young women of tomorrow, regardless of their financial background.

Leaving a legacy is not about the size of the gift; it is about the endurance of your values.

It is a final, powerful act of mentorship—a way to say to a girl years from now:

"I believe in your potential, and I am investing in your success."

THE HBS TRUST

(Charity number 1071460)

In order to maintain The Henrietta Barnett School's high educational standards, fundraising is a financial necessity - government funding enables us to provide the basics, such as staffing and essential equipment but to truly provide what our students need to thrive and excel in a safe, well-maintained school site, we rely on the support of The HBS Trust and our wider community.

The HBS Trust has been the cornerstone in helping the school in its provision of an exceptional education for many years, supporting students of today and those who have left the school but carry with them the difference HBS made to their lives.

Types of Legacy

If you would like to leave a legacy to support The Henrietta Barnett School Trust we recommend that you speak to your solicitor who can advise on the steps you need to take and the types of gifts to consider. Types of gifts include:

- Residuary - this involves leaving all or part of the net residue of your estate once all other gifts have been distributed
- Pecuniary - a gift made of a specific sum
- Reversionary - a gift which allows named individuals to benefit from your estate during their lifetime, after which designated assets are passed on to a named charity

Pledge Your Support

This will enable us to thank you for your generosity and if you wish, publicly acknowledge your support.
